Coaches,

We are excited to announce the second annual Merritt Moonlight Run cross country meet! The meet will take place in the evening of Thursday, August 29, with the final events being held completely under light towers with music playing from our football stadium. Each participant will be provided with glow necklaces and you are encouraged to bring as many “glow products” for your team as you would like. Concessions, restrooms and seating will be available at the football field. We want this to be a fun, competitive meet that you will want to bring you teams back to year after year so please bring your athletes ready to compete and have fun!

Course Location: The west side of the Merritt School campus located at 19693 E 1130 Rd, Elk City. The football field will be the central area of the course. Our school is located just south of I-40, off of exit 34 with easy on and off access.

Awards: Custom Medals will be given to the top 20 finishers in High School and Middle school. 10 medals will be awarded in the Elementary division. The winning team from each division will be awarded a trophy.
